

PROJECT THINK

Parent Resource Guide – Support for Reporting or Responding to Abuse

Purpose

This guide is intended to assist families in locating local and state resources if a child discloses abuse or if you suspect a child has been harmed. These organizations provide confidential support, reporting options, and counseling referrals.

Child Protective Services (Los Angeles County)

To report suspected abuse or neglect of a minor

24/7 Child Protection Hotline

Phone: (800) 540-4000

Claremont Police Department

For immediate or local response in Claremont

Phone (non-emergency): (909) 399-5411

Emergency: 911

Project Sister Family Services

Provides counseling and support services for survivors of abuse and their families

Location: Pomona, CA (serving Claremont and surrounding areas)

Phone (24-hour crisis line): (909) 626-HELP (4357)

Website: www.projectsister.org

Los Angeles County Department of Mental Health

Referrals for child therapy and family counseling

Phone: (800) 854-7771 (24/7 Access Line)

Website: dmh.lacounty.gov

National Child Abuse Hotline

Confidential assistance and information

Phone: 1-800-4-A-CHILD (1-800-422-4453)

Website: childhelphotline.org

Note to Parents

If you believe your child has been harmed, please do not wait to act. The above resources are free and available to help you take the appropriate steps to protect and support your child. If you are unsure whether a situation requires a report, these services can also help guide you.